

Primary Presentation Objective

- To come to a more comprehensive answer to the question, “Who speaks for God?” Or stated differently, is it credible to believe that Jesus Christ speaks on behalf of God?

Secondary Presentation Objectives

- Truth - Help men understand the history and backgrounds of some of the largest world religions and followings.
- A recognition and act of faith that Jesus Christ is the ultimate prophet and more ... He is God.

Essential Small Group Goals

- Humble and thankful for being a Christian. Recognition that it is by grace that we have received the gift of faith.
- An honest and charitable discussion about what sets Christianity apart from other world religions or ways of life.

Questions from Video Presentation

- If you are going to investigate people in world history who have claimed to speak on behalf of God, why is Jesus the obvious candidate to start with?
- Are all the world religions just different paths up the same mountain? Or do different world religions actually have different goals? Discuss.

Supplemental Questions

- What struck you from today’s presentation?
- Were you surprised by the volume and affirmation of Jesus Christ in the Quran?
- What are your thoughts about Gandhi’s quote about India being Christian if Christians really lived according to the teachings of Christ?

Next Week!

- Speaker: Dr. John Bergsma                      Topic: Why the Catholic Church?
