

Primary Presentation Objective

- There are only two kinds of people in the end: those who say to God, 'Thy will be done', and those to whom God says, 'Thy will be done' (CS Lewis). Our goal is to faithfully embrace God's will for our lives.

Secondary Presentation Objectives

- Place all of our intentions, actions and operations in praise and service to the Kingdom of God.
- Christ the King is calling us to join Him in both His suffering (for a short time) and in His glory forever without end.

Essential Small Group Goals

- Understand and embrace the eternal perspective of St. Ignatius and Blessed Franz.
- Help the men come to an understanding that "all that is earthly—no matter how much, nor how beautiful—comes to an end. But God's Word is eternal."

Questions from Video Presentation

- How does St. Ignatius's emphasis on serving the Lord as if responding to the call of a King strengthen, challenge, or change your life as a disciple?
- Following Blessed Franz Jägerstätter, what does it mean for you to put God first as a husband, or father, or man of God?

Supplemental Questions

- What struck you from today's presentation and/or Dr. Lenny's three presentations on the Kingdom?
- What did you think about CS Lewis's quote about there only being two types of people? What would your life be like if God always granted you your will?
- Do you believe, "If a person were to possess all of the world's wisdom and be able to claim half the earth as his own, he could and would still be less fortunate than a poor person who can claim nothing ... other than a deep Catholic faith"?
