

Primary Presentation Objective

- Help men submit their lives and all of their past sins to the mercy of God. Help them know that if God can use someone with a past like John Edwards, he can use any of us.

Secondary Presentation Objectives

- Help men grow in vulnerability within their small groups and with the Lord (especially in confession).
- Very simply, Lent is about conversion. What better way than to start with a conversion story!

Essential Small Group Goals

- Discuss John's process of conversion and how it relates to your process of conversion.
- Be vulnerable - what areas in your life need to encounter the mercy of God to be transformed?

Questions From Video Presentation

- What masks are you currently wearing in your life?
- Have you become vulnerable with the Lord?
- Do you believe that God has forgiven you for your mistakes and that you are His beloved son?

Supplemental Questions

- What else struck you about this presentation or specifically from John's story of conversion?
- Does anyone in the group have a similar or massive story of conversion?
- How will you aspire to grow in holiness this Lenten season?
